

December '99

SAMA BILBAO'S

WorkingTraveler

and vacations for eric

FEATURES

34 SPAIN LIKE YOU'VE NEVER SEEN IT BEFORE Even if you go to Spain for only a week, during which you have 4 job interviews, you shouldn't miss the new Bilbao with the Guggenheim, nor the nearby communities of Bermeo and Mundaka with their breathtaking vistas. BY ALFONSO BILBAO

42 WINDOW SHOPPING IN AMSTERDAM If you ever get stuck overnight in Amsterdam, pray that your airline is KLM. You'll have a hotel in the middle of the 'Red Light District' where all the, ahem, action is. BY KLM

50 TOKYO IN A DAY? NOT ONLY POSSIBLE, BUT AFFORDABLE Go to Japan for two weeks, tour a bunch of nuclear facilities, visit all the wonderful temples, shrines and other tourist sites and... find out all about the wedding you plan to crash on your next visit. BY AYAKO KITAYIMA & ROBERTO GUTIERREZ

62 BOSTON IS BACK! Forget about that conference and follow the red line while you explore all the cool places that historic Boston has to offer. BY DAVID CHICHESTER

84 THE JEWEL OF THE WEST COAST: SAN FRANCISCO Plan a bike ride over the Golden Gate Bridge, sharpen your international relations and enjoy the food and view from Tiburon across the bay. BY ROB ULFIG

96 BONN AT NIGHT You know that the climate is changing when you spend two weeks in Bonn and you don't even have time to enjoy a bear in Beethoven Place... in daylight. BY PAUL WILSON

102 PENNYWISE IN PARIS Skip the taxis! Notre Dame, Monmarte, The Louve, the big metal tower, your business meeting... they can all be reached by the metro. BY DOMINIQUE PINEAU & PATRICK TEYSSIER

120 CREPES ALA MANOSQUE Enjoy life in the vineyards of Southern France while your friends make you crepes and give you tips on how to ace that interview. BY MAXIME & MAGALI ZABIEGO

34

96

